Hire us to fire up your Burns Supper this year! Our celebrations are for private groups and corporate clients and can take place in your own venue or one of ours. As accomplished public speakers and masters of ceremony we have experience hosting groups of up to 300 people and travel worldwide.

Simply Whisky mix the traditional with the contemporary to enable a modern day appreciation of Scotland's bard, Robert Burns. Let us help bring your event to life!

“But oil'd by thee, The wheels o' life gae down-hill, scrievin, Wi' rattlin glee.” – Robert Burns

“A huge thank you to Simon and Franchi of Simply Whisky for supplying us with the much needed celtic contingent at our Burns Night Extravaganza. These two are the walking definition of Scottish hospitality and worked their sporrans off, with a well informed and lively whisky masterclass before compering our Burns Supper. Their Selkirk Grace was wonderful and the Address to a Haggis passionately and hilariously delivered, while their Burns Factor poetry competition had the audience in rapturous applause. They didn't take a moment to themselves, constantly checking in and entertaining individual tables when not commanding the floor. They were a sheer delight to work with from start to finish; a rare combination of absolute professionalism, mixed with a generous slug of good humour and a sprinkling of roguery.”

Andria Stirling, Bourne & Hollingsworth Group

Our memorable Address to a Haggis and our unique Burns-aoke and Burns Factor games get everyone involved, ensuring an unforgettable evening for all. The fun doesn't end there. Enjoy Scottish ceilidh dancing with a live drum and pipe band!

Clients and Testimonials

"At a Burns Night event at London Bridge, Simon assaulted the haggis with an eight inch blade, members of the public were forced to recite the bard's poems in a bizarre game of 'Burns Idol' and the entire evening was littered with huge tracts of Burns's authentic Scots gibberish reeled off from memory at top volume. The response was general bewilderment and shocked laughter. The audience were mesmerised."

Tim Forbes, Whisky Writer

St Andrew's gala banquet haggis address for H.S.H. Prince Albert II and Princess Charlene of Monaco, and invited guests at the Hermitage hotel in Monte Carlo. The team were delighted to be invited back to host a special tasting of celtic malt whiskies for His Serene Highness, and again to host an auction to raise funds for the Prince Albert II of Monaco Foundation

Burns poetry performance at Ewan McGregor's Not Another Burns Night in London for a star studded audience at the St Martins Lane hotel, the team were personally congratulated by Sharleen Spiteri of Texas, oh, and Ewan's a great guy!

"Enthralling, engaging and utterly entertaining about sums up the Burns Night experience enjoyed by our guests courtesy of Simply Whisky. Their hilarious and dynamic delivery of the Burns Night traditions (plus a few not so traditional features) delighted a packed hall of over 200 guests who were only too willing to be led on a raucous journey of whiskies and enthusiastic recitals. Simon and Franchi created an evening's entertainment that will be difficult to surpass and is the start of many great Burns Nights at Vinopolis in the years to come. In fact, the humour, energy and dedication to having a 'dram good time' is just too addictive so I have already pencilled them in for next year!"

Marjory Brown, Head of Events, Vinopolis

Burns' Night Extravaganza for 75 guests at Bourne & Hollingsworth Buildings: an evening of fabulous food washed down with whisky and words. Guests were welcomed with live scottish music, rousing bagpipes and delicious whisky cocktails prepared by experts Jim Wrigley and Jamie Forbes, before enjoying a whirlwind celebration of the life and work of Robert Burns during which whiskies from The Glenrothes, Highland Park, Macallan, Laphroaig and Auchentoshan were paired with traditional scottish dishes prepared by michelin star chef Adam Gray. Entertainment included a very lively Address to a Haggis, Burns Idol, and the Toast to the Lassies followed by an unsurpassable reply!

Six times masters of ceremony for Albannach restaurant and whisky bar for their Burns Supper Celebration in Trafalgar Square, London, hosting 100-140 people each time. Entertainment included a passionate 'Address to the Haggis', readings of 'To A Mouse' and 'Tam O Shanter', live renditions of Burns songs 'Scots Wha Hae' and 'Red Red Rose', a drum and pipe band, Burns Idol and celidh dancing.

"Simon and Franchi know how to put on a great show. They know how to pitch and pace the proceedings perfectly. They know how to create a sense of gleeful drama. They know how to perform with passion. In short, they know their Burns—and they do him proud. Slainté!" Frontpage hired the team twice to perform at the Nash Conservatory at Kew Gardens, and then at the famous Shakespeare's Globe theatre.

Felicity Johnson, Director, Front Page Design

Bagpipe performance and haggis address for a lovely Italian Scots family who were celebrating a special occasion at the 5 Star Killarney Park Hotel in Ireland. Our congratulations to Executive Head Chef Heiko Riebandt for making from scratch the best haggis we have ever tasted!
